Some couples choose to build their families through adoption. Adoption may be sought for a variety of reasons, including after failed attempts at a biological child, as a first choice for couples facing artificial reproductive technologies in order to conceive, or as an option for couples who have a biological child, wish to grow their families, but opt not to pursue fertility treatments again. This directory includes adoption resources in New York State, including agencies and attorneys.

This directory is part of a series of lists of New York State providers (and other states where appropriate) who offer services that may be of interest to women or men hoping to bring a child into their lives. Please note that these lists are not comprehensive, nor does Infertilityeducation.org or Ferre Institute offer assurance or warranty for any of the providers listed.

We hope you find these directories useful. Please feel free to contact us with additions or edits to our list and we would be glad to review.

To find out more about NYS laws regarding insurance coverage and information about grant programs which provide funding for certain infertility treatments, please see the NYS Insurance Law Fact Sheet at www.infertilityeducation.org/services.php.
